MEMORIAL ERECTED TO JEFFERSON DAVIS

Thousands of Confederate Vets Witness Unveiling.

BIG PARADE OF THE VETERANS

The Monument Is the Fruition of Sixteen Years of Patient and Loving Effort on the Part of the People of the South.

Richmond, Va., June 4.—An everlasting memorial of Jefferson Davis, the patriot and statesman, who was the chosen leader of "The Lost Cause" and the first and only president of the Confederate States of America, was unveiled here Monday as the crowning feature of the annual reunion of the Confederate Veterans.

The ceremony was made the occasion for a grand military pageant in which every veteran in gray who was physically able and many a one who was not, participated with an energy and enthusiasm which defied the life-sapping years that have gone since he bore arms for the south. The drawing aside of the veil which draped the figure representing the veterans' beloved leader and the first gun of the presidential salute which immediately followed was a signal for an outburst of cheering which was swollen to thunderous applause by the sons and daughters of the veterans. Tears bedimmed the eyes and coursed down the cheeks of the boys in gray and their emotion-choked voices would have but a feeble effort had it not been for the assistance given by a younger and homage-paying generation.

The event was a fitting close to what is universally recognized as the last "great gathering of the confederate veterans." It was the feature that drew many thousands from all sections of the south who otherwise would not have come.

The unveiling of the monument was the fruition of eighteen years of patient and loving effort and every man who wore the southern uniform had in his heart a desire to be present. A devotion which knows no equal in American history is responsible for its building. It was a work the south had to do without help. There was no united nation to bear the expense. Love and sacrifice were the Masons who piled the stones and spread th emotar that cemented them into an enduring memorial.

Grand Parade.

The grand parade started at 11:30 o'clock. The military feature was similar to the parade on the first day of the reunion when the statue of Major General J. E. B. Stuart was unveiled, but there were far more veterans in gray in the line. They appeared to have been saving their strength for this event and though walking was bad none who could walk at all shirked the duty. Veterans of every section of the south marched in honor of the soldier, statesman and president of the southland.

The grand procession was under control of General Stith Boling, of Petersburg, Va., as chief marshal.

The procession continued out the avenue to the Davis monument, where a dense crowd of people had assembled. So great was this congregation that it was with great difficulty a passage was cleared for the speakers and other distinguished visitors to reach the stand. The ceremonies were opened with prayer by the Rev. J. William Jones, of Richmond, chaplain general, and so glowing were his tributes to General Davis that a chorus of "Amens" were murmured by the multitude.

The first address was by Governor Claude A. Swanson, of Virginia, and he was followed by Mayor Carlton McCarthy, of Richmond, who introduced General Evans as orator of the day.

Mayor Accepts Trust.

At the conclusion of his address the mayor spoke briefly, accepting on behalf of Richmond, the sacred trust imposed upon it by the whole south. Mrs. J. A. Hayes, of Colorado Springs, Colo., daughter of Mr. Davis, then pulled the cord that held the canvass shroud that covered the bronge statue. Her two young sons, the grandsons of the confederate president, caught the two cords to complete the unveiling. The moment was one of never-to-be-forgotten impressiveness. One moment, not more than a second or two of absolute silence, and then burst forth cheering, bands played and the Richmond Howitzers began firing their presidential salute. The ceremonies were not ended at the unveiling, but the multitude could not be kept quiet for the rest. The people forming the immediate circle around the monument sang and sang, and saw garlands placed on the pedestal of the monument.

After the benediction by the chaplain general, floral tributes were offered by the public.

The monument to Jefferson Davis is the crowning statue of Richmond's great monument avenue. It is the combined work of E. V. Valentine and William C. Noland, of Richmond. The memorial is of a semi-circular colonade terminated at each end in a square piece with a large color shaft from the end of the space. The semi-circle is about 50 feet across, with a depth of 30 feet, and stands 67 feet in total height. The monument typifies the vindication of Mr. Davis and the cause of a confederacy, the leading inscription being "Deo Vindico" (God will vindicate).

The bronze figure of Mr. Davis stands on a great block of granite in front of the column and about 12 feet above the roadway.

THIRD DAY OF THE CONVENTION

Birmingham Was Selected by the Vets as Place for Next Meeting.

Richmond, June 4.—Great sheets of cold, wind-swept rain were sweeping down from a frowning sky when the gray-coated "boys" of 1861-65 gathered once more in the horse show building to attend the third session of the United Confederate Veterans, but lachrymose heavens and chilly weather could not drive the sunshine from the hearts of the old soldiers.

The joy of being again with the comrades of over four decades ago overleaped all difficulties and ignored all discomfort, while the stirring southern airs played by the band aroused a host of dormant memories which were sweet in their revivification.

To say that the weather was viciously disagreeable, but half expressed it, yet hundreds and hundreds of Johnny Rebs were in the hall when the body was called to order. In fact, the attendance was but little smaller than that of the second, when General Stephen D. Lee rapped the body to order and presented the Rev. Dr. McKim, of Washington, who offered prayer.

Dr. J. William Jones submitted the annual report of the Confederate Memorial association, which dealt chiefly with the status of the battle abbey and the benefaction of Charles Broadway Rouss.

The report which called for additional financial aid was adopted midst great enthusiasm.

The report of the history committee was received and ordered to be printed. It was not read to the convention.

A cane cut from th ecenter of Cold Harbor battlefield was presented by J. J. Estes, company D, Eighth Virginia cavalry, to General Stephen D. Lee. The commander accepted the gift in fitting language.

A stirring speech was made during one of the unoccupied intervals of time by General Bennett Young, of Kentucky, who commented on the many monuments which had been erected to the memory of the confederate soldiers in the southland. He said that Kentucky alone had raised forty to confederates, and not one to federals.

Ex-United States Senator James H. Berry, of Arkansas, who lost a leg at Corinth, Miss., was presented to the convenetion. When he hobbled forward to the speaker's stand on his crutch he was greeted by a tremendous wave of applause, and once again the whole convention arose to its feet. Senator Berry delivered an address replete with felicitous references to Virginia.

The grand camp re-elected its general officers as follows:

Commander-in-chief, General Stephen D. Lee.

Lieutenant general, department of the Army of Northern Virginia, General Irvine Walker.

Lieutenant general, department of Tennessee, General Clement A. Evans.

Lieutenant general, Trans-Mississippi department, General W. L. Cabell.

All of the officers were chosen by acclamation.

Birmingham was th ecity chosen for the next (eighteenth) annual reunion of the veterans. Other cities in competition were San Antonio and Nashville. The vote stood about 1,600 to 800 in favor of the Alabama city.

The report of the committee on resolutions was adopted without debate.

Memorial Day in Louisiana.

New Orleans, June 4.—Confederate Memorial day in the state of Louisiana, and Jefferson's birthday make a double holiday with the banks and many commercial houses colsed. Confederate monuments and the graves of confederate veterans were decorated during a parade of confederate organiations which, in succession, visited the historical places associated with the day.

Representative Passes Away.

Tallahassee, Fla., June 4—Representative John R. Dudley died Saturday morning and his body was taken to his home at Plant City, in Hillsborough county. Mr. Dudley was seized with typhoid fever shortly after the convening of the legislature and his seat was vacant during the term. The remains were accompanied by an escort composed of members of the house.

Militia Going to Jamestown.

Atlanta, June 4.—The Fifth regiment, Georgia state troops, the crack military organization of the Empire State of the South, will pass in review before General Frederick Dent Grant, of the United States army, at Jamestown on the day that the silver service is presented the great battleship now riding at anchor in anticipation of the advancing Georgians.

Was Mistaken for an Animal.

Oskaloosa, Iowa, June 4.—Richard Harding's alcoholic snoring, while sleeping behind a hedge at Durfee mining camp, caused him to be shot and killed by friends who misteok the noise for the snoring of a wild animal. The slayers surrendered to the sheriff.

CLOUDBURST VISITS STATE OF KENTUCKY

Great Damage Done In Dozen or More Counties.

LANDSLIDES DELAY THE TRAINS

Torrential Downpour Sweeps Dozens of Counties, Doing Incalculable Damage to Farms, Bridges and Railroads.

Lexington, Ky., June 4.—Reports received Monday indicate that the damage by Saturday night's cloudburst will probably reach $50,000.

In Nicholas, Pendleton, Wolff, Lee, Grant, Harrison, Bourbon, Montgomery, Bath and other central and eastern Kentucky counties, live stock bridges, fencing, smail outhouses and feed were washed away.

All trains are delayed by landslides.

Several landslides are reported on the Chesapeake and Ohio in the eastern part of the state. Bridges were washed away over the Lexington and Eastern railroad near Torrent, White county. Hiram Blair, a mail carrier, is missing in Nicholas county, and is believed to have been drowned or killed by lightning.

John Crow and Henry Towles were struck by bolts of lightning and badly injured.

ONE KILLED; SCORE INJURED.

Fast Flying Train on Southern Pacific Is Wrecked.

San Antonio, Tex., June 4.—One man instantly killed and a score of persons injured, some of whom will die, is the result of the wrecking of eastbound passenger train No. 8 Sunday morning 2 miles west of Lozier, a small station on the Southern Pacific.

The derailment was the result either of train wreckers or defective steel rails.

It was while the train was dashing along at a speed of from 35 or 40 miles an hour that the derailment occurred. The engine seemingly passed safely over the obstruction, though every car in the train was derailed, two of them turning completely over

All dead and wounded were in the chair car, this being one of the cars to turn over. This car was thrown over upon its side and dragged along over the rocks of the embankment.

Practically every one was asleep in the car, and so suddenly was the interior transformed from a scene of calm and peace into a charnel carriage, that the inmates hardly realized what had happened and only to awaken with the angel of death in their midst. This was followed by chaos and confusion, until the more fortunate and uninjured of the train went to the rescue of the maimed. Not until dawn did medical aid reach the injured, who bravely bore their suffering.

A TRAGIC INCIDENT.

Military Balloon Struck by Lightning and Aeronaut Killed.

Rome, June 4.—T tragic incident took place Saturday during a review of the troops by King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Helena.

As a part of the maneuvers a military balloon was sent up to a height of 700 feet with Captain Villvelli in the car.

A storm which had been coming up, burst suddenly and the thousands of spectators were horrified to see a flash of lightning strike the gas bag. There was an enormous burst of flame and a terrific detonation, and the collapsed balloon with its dangling car fell to the earth a mile from the scene of ascension. Crowds of persons rushed in the direction where the balloon had fallen. Captain Villvelli was found alive but unconscious. He was picked up and placed in an automobile and rushed to a hospital where he died without regaining consciousness.

Strike Is Growing.

Pensacola, Fla., June 4.—The machinists' strike in the employ of the Louisville and Nashville here is growing, and Sunday there were only about five machinists and a few helpers left in this department. There were only nine union men employed in the shops when the order was issued for a strike, and these walked out, with some helpers. Since then ten other machinists, who were not members of the union, have quit work and joined the union, all have so far secured employment either in local shops or in the various departments at the navy yard.

Young Man Shot and Killed.

Birmingham, Ala., June 4.—William S. Davis, Jr., a well known man, was shot and instantly killed by Jim Russell, son of Attorney J. M. Russell, at North Haven, a suburb of Birmingham, Sunday afternoon. A number of young men were engaged in a crap game when Russell and a youth by the name of Frank Foster, became involved in a difficulty. Both drew their knives, when Russell drew his pistol and shot Davis. Russell ran away after the shooting and has not yet been apprehended.

Hot Fire in a Ship's Hold.

New York, June 4—The fire on the White Star liner Oceanic, which was discovered in the steerage shortly after 1 o'clock Monday morning, was not brought under control for two hours. The fire started among the steerage berths and proved to be a veritable blast furnace. The crew was called to quarters and did what it could to extinguish the fire, but when they spread to the cargo, outside aid had to be called.

IN TURN VEREIN HALL FIRE 3 LIVES LOST

Thousands of Dollars' Worth of Damage Done.

BIG BLAZE AT NEWARK, N. J.

Flames, Fanned by a Strong Wind, Spread Rapidly and for a Time Threatened to Assume Conflagration of Serious Proportions.

Newark, N. J., June 4.—Three lives were lost and thousands of dollars' worth of damage was done in a fire which started shortly before 3 o'clock Monday morning in the Newark Turn Verein hall. The known dead are:

Joseph Honeke, janitor of the Turner hall, burned to death in his apartments.

Mrs. Joseph Honeke, wife of the janitor, overcome by smoke and burned to death.

A child of the janitor, overcome by smoke and burned to death.

The flames, fanned by a strong northeast wind, spread with great rapidity, and for a time a conflagration of serious proportions was threatened.

Eight families occupied the floors above the hall and the policemen were kept busy rescuing women and children.

WHISKY BATTLE RAGES.

Construction Camp Is Scene of the Trouble.

Knoxville, Tenn., June 4.—News of a bloody battle in the mountains of Blount county reached here Sunday when Deputy Sheriff Matthews, of Blount county, came here looking for W. R. Roberts, a walking boss employed in construction camp No. 5, of the Campbell company, located 35 miles from Maryville, in the mountains, on an extension which the Southern railway is building from Maryville into North Carolina.

Roberts was arrested by the local police at Lonsdale, a suburb of this city. Roberts claims that as boss of the railroad camp he has tried hard to keep moonshine whisky away from his workmen. Several mountaineers have been just as persistent in trying to sell the stuff.

Saturday afternoon Roberts states that a large party of natives began an attack on the camp, shooting, at first, from a distance of 20 0yards. He would not let his men reply to the fire until the party came up with the camp, when, he says, a fusilade of shots resulted and "Black Jim" Burchfield was killed and perhaps others injured.

Roberts, fearing assassination, rode all night through the mountains. He says he does not know who killed Burchfield. The deputy sheriff from Blount county had a different story of the affair. He had been informed that the trouble between Burchfield was largely personal, and that Roberts shot and killed Burchfield.

Insurrection in China.

Amony, China, June 4—The conditions at Chang Chow, Okne, are unsettled. Many refugees continue to arrive here and numbers of missionaries of all denominations have reached Swatow. Quiet is maintained there, though there is great anxiety as to the outcome of the revolt in the surrounding country. The rebel leader allows no looting and no foreigners have been molested, so far as is known. There is a small American mission at Chang Chow. The Japanese cruiser Naniawa arrived here Sunday.

Groover Found Not Guilty.

Summerville, Ga., June 3.—After being out about 24 hours the jury in the case of the state versus G. L. Groover, charged with poisoning Mrs. R. E. Hooks, at Chelsea, Ga., on October 2, 1906, returned a verdict of not guilty at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. On account of the prominence of the parties, this case has attracted wider attention than any case in the annals of the superior court of this county.

Young White Man Run Down and Killed by Seaboard Train.

Information has reached this city of the death of a young white man, a flagman on the Seaboard Air Line railroad, who was run over and killed by a train which he was flagging at Campville three or four days ago.

The circumstances of the tragic occurrence are meager, neither could the name of the young man be learned. It is stated, however, that his train was a freight which had taken a siding, and the train backed into him while he was standing in the center of the track with his attention directed elsewhere.

To Our Friends and Patrons.

The closing of our banking department is now fixed for the 5th of July. This will be immediately succeeded by The Dutton Bank, a State institution organized by and to be conducted and managed by some of the most reliable and conservative men of the city and vicinity.

All deposits in the bank of H. F. Dutton & Co. will be transferred to the new bank, unless otherwise directed by the depositors, and business will continue without change or interruption of any kind. The new bank will forward receipts and all necessary papers to the depositors.

Parties holding time certificates of deposit can have them redeemed at once, with interest, or can hold them until their maturity, to suit the wishes or convenience of the holder. The new bank will issue certificates with like conditions if parties so desire.

We bespeak for our successors the same liberal patronage that we have received. They are men so well known in this vicinity that they will have already secured the confidence of others as they have of ourselves. They ask for your patronage, and will return in favors as liberal as a conservative method of doing business will permit. If our old depositors, who have been with us so many years, will extend to them the same confidence, favors and patronage that they have so liberally given us, they will add to the many obligations under which they have already placed us.

H. F. Dutton & Co. will handle cotton (bales of cotton) as usual at the old stand. Very sincerely,

NEW CRATE FACTORY MAY START HERE

W. R. Stokely of St. Augustine Has An Excellent Patent.

A NEW SECTIONAL CRATE

The Crate is Round, Possessing Many Advantage Over the Square Box. Patantee Desires to Establish Factory Here If Properly Encouraged.

Gainesville may soon have another industry which will prove one of the largest and most important in this section of the State. It is a crate factory, which will manufacture the new improved Stokely cylindrical fruit and egg crate, of which W. R. Stokely of St. Augustine is the patentee.

Mr. Stokely was in Gainesville Monday, having come for the purpose of looking over the situation. Realizing that Gainesville is located in the center of the most fertile trucking and horticultural section of the State, the patentee concluded that this would be the proper place for the establishment of a factory, the location also proving of extra advantages on account of the abundance of hard wood to be found in this section.

The Stokely crate, as its name indicates, is a cylinder crate, which is made of gum wood. It is a sectional crate, very handsome, and by the means of which the fruit or produce may be shown off to excellent advantage. It contains many advantages over the ordinary crate, principal among which is the ventilation.

Mr. Stokely had with him a sample crate in which was neatly packed a section of oranges. He exhibited it to a number of gentlemen, explaining its merits and advantages.

The patentee states that this crate can be manufactured and sold as cheaply as the square crate. He is thinking seriously of establishing a large factory here in the event that he can secure the necessary financial encouragement.

The marshal's report for May, which has been turned in to the proper authority, shows forty-one arrests during the month, with an aggregate revenue from fines of $124. Forty-nine head of catte were impounded, making fees aggregating $24.50.

THE MASK OF HEALTH.

Few People Are Really as Well as They Look—Cause and Remedy.

Many people in Gainesville, both men and women, who believe themselves to be in perfect health, are often in the greatest danger.

Indigestion, which is so common a trouble, is the principal cause of the greater share of the general poor health. It has misleading symptoms that seem to have no reference to the stomach, such as headache, sleeplessness, specks before the eyes, pains in the back and side, etc.

The success of physicians everywhere with the prescription that is now embodied in Mi-o-na stomach tablets has made this remedy in the last few years the acknowledged specific for the treatment of stomach diseases. The secret of this success lies in the fact that Mi-o-na is prepared expressly to strengthen the digestive organs and its use for a few days puts the whole digestive system in such shape that it can care for all of the food that is eaten without pain or distress.

Simply take a Mi-o-na stomach tablet before each meal and on retiring, and it will so strengthen the stomach that you can enjoy a hearty meal without the least fear of distress or suffering. J. W. McCollum gives an absolute unqualified guarantee that your money will be refunded unless Mi-o-na cures. He takes the whole risk and the remedy will not cost you a penny unless it cures you.

The Mayor and City Council shall have the power, by ordinance, to fix the maximum rate or rates to be charged for gas and electric lights, and all other public utilities, whether owned by the municipality or by any individuals, firm or firms, corporation or corporations."

Section 3—That Section 4 of the above Act be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Section 4—The Mayor and City Council are hereby authorized, by ordinance, to regulate, provide for and require the opening, widening, extending and improving of streets, avenues and public places, the construction and maintenance of sidewalks and street pavements; the establishment and maintenance and keeping in order of grass plots and parkways in front of property between the property lines or outer sidewalk lines and the driveways in the center of streets; the drainage and filling in of low places, public or private, dangerous to public health, and the cleaning up and putting into proper condition of places requiring such work to be done to promote the public welfare; and the construction and maintenance of water mains, sewers and drains; and may by ordinance, provide for the payment of the cost thereof by general taxation or by special assessment of the cost thereof against the property fronting or abutting upon the street, avenue or public place where the same is done in proportion to frontage of the property fronting thereon, the special assessment being made per front foot of the abutting property, or part of the cost thereof may be, by ordinance, paid by general taxation of all property of the city, and the remainder by such special assessment, and, in cases of drainage and filling in of low places (other than streets, avenues and public places) dangerous to public health, and the cleaning up and putting into proper condition of places requiring such work to be done to protect the pubic welfare, shall provide for the payment of the cost of such work by special assessment of the cost thereof or of such part of the cost as may be provided by ordinance, against the property upon which such work is done and the city shall have a lien superior to all other liens upon the abutting property drained and filled in or cleaned up and put into proper condition as the case may be, for the amounts of special assessments together with interest thereon and cost of collecting thereof whenever the doing of any such thing is provided for by ordinance.

"The ordinance providing for the same shall state the estimated total cost thereof and the estimated amount per front foot of the special assessments to be levied upon abutting property, or the estimated cost to be specially assessed against the property drained, filled in, cleaned up or put into proper condition, as the case may be, and shall be published once each week for four weeks in a newspaper printed in the said city, and the City Council shall meet as soon as practicable after the expiration of said publication, at a time named in the ordinance, and permit any owner of, or other person interested in, any property against which it is proposed to levy such special assessment, to present to tne City Council any objections which he may have to the enforcement of the requirement of such ordinance; and shall have power, if they deem justice or right to require the same, to repeal or amend said ordinance; but no such amendment shall increase the amount to be specially assessed against other property. Any person owning or interested in any property to be specially assessed or generally taxed for said work, who shall not at such meeting present in writing to the City Council his objection to said ordinance, shall be deemed to have consented to its provisions, and any person so presenting his objections to such ordinance and not satisfied with the action thereon, shall have the right within thirty days thereafter to present to any court of competent jurisdiction by bill in chancery praying for an injunction against the enforcement of said ordinance, and the court shall have the power upon proper cause shown, to grant such injunction; and any person not so presenting his bill for injunction within thirty days, or failing to push to a successful conclusion with due diligence his application for an injunction, shall be deemed to have consented to the enforcement of the ordinance and the levy and collection of the special assessment and taxes necessary thereto, and shall not thereafter be heard to defend against or question the validity of such tax or special assessment.

"The Mayor and City Council are hereby authorized to provide by ordinance, for the issuance of special assessment city certificates for such amounts and drawing rates of interest (not to exceed six per cent per annum) and upon such terms and conditions as may be deemed necessary, to enable the city to pay the cost of such work pending the collection of the special assessment and taxes, and to provide for the payment thereof with interest and the City Council shall as soon as practicable after the completion of any such work, by resolution, fix the special assessment per front foot upon the abutting property or the special assessment against the property drained, filled in, cleaned up or put into proper condition, as the case may be, at an amount not exceeding either the actual cost of the work or the estimated special assessment stated in the ordinance providing for the work. Any person desiring to contest in any way the validity of any such special assessment or lien shall within thirty days after the publication of the resolution fixing the special assessment, institute suit to have the enforcement thereof enjoined or its invalidity legally declared, and no person so instituting such suit shall thereafter be heard to question the validity thereof or to defend against the enforcement of the lien upon the grounds of its invalidity. Any such special assessment paid within thirty days after the publication of such resolution shall be accepted without interest and such assessment not so paid within said time shall bear interest from the date of publication of such resolution at the rate of six per cent per annum. The Mayor and City Council may, by ordinance, provide for the payment of such special assessment in installments, and for the collection by enforcement of the liens by attorney or attorneys after any payment has not been made in compliance with the provisions of such ordinance. The liens for the amounts of such special assessment may be enforced by bill in equity, and any number of liens arising under the provisions of one ordinance may be enforced in and by

THIRD WEEK OF TRIAL.

Mayor of San Francisco Must Answer Extortion Charge.

San Francisco, June 4—The third week of the trial of Mayor Schmitz on the charge of extortion will begin Monday with eight jurors in the box and with the prosecution limited to but one peremptory challenge and the defense two. Two talesmen were accepted on Friday, but two jurors chosen earlier in the case were disqualified on the same day. Four more jurors are yet to be selected before the testimony can be taken. The accusation on which Schmits will be tried is one of the first five indictments returned against him in connection with the extortion of money from French restaurant keepers under threat of forcing the police commissioners to withhold permits for liquor licenses.

Since the Schmitz trial has begun, 30 other true bills have been found against him by the grand jury.

The cable of the elevator broke and the car dropped two stories.

A SPRING MEDICINE.

With the advent of spring many people feel the need of a tonic of some sort, and there are not a few favorite spring-tonic formulas treasured almost as heirlooms in old families. Some of these have real merit and should be made public for the public good, but their holders are in most cases loath to give them wide publicity. A thoroughly scientific prescription that is found to do the work required of a spring medicine and to do it quickly and agreeably is composed of ¼ oz. Fluid Extract of Buchu, 1 oz. Bulso Mixture, ½ oz. Fluid Extract Gentian Compound and 15 ozs. water. The proper dose is a tablespoonful taken three times a day, before meals. Any good pharmacy will put up this prescription at small expense.

TWO KILLED IN TRAIN CRASH.

Egineer and Machinist Killed in a Wreck on Central Railroad.

Savannah, Ga., June 4.—Engineer Daniel Bowen and Machinist William T. Harrison met their death at 8 o'clock Sunday morning in a wreck at the crossing of the Central of Georgia and the Charleston and Savannah railroad.

The light engine Bowen was driving crashed into another, of which H. J. Allen was engineer. Allen was slightly bruised about the face, his escape being regarded as miraculous.

Harrison crawled from beneath the wreckage, terribly injured. As he lay on the track he begged piteously that he be killed to relieve his terrible agony. He welcomed death when it came.

The bodies laid for two hours before a wrecking crew arrived upon the ground.

Sentenced Affirmed.

New Orleans, June 4.—The sentence of the federal court in the famous Greene-Gaynor case involving over half a million dollar fraud in goverment contract work in Savannah harbor, was affirmed Monday in an opinion handed down by the United States circuit court of appeals. The sentence is four years' imprisonment each and a fine aggregating $675,000. Judges Shelby and McCormick handed down the opinion, which was an appeal, and Judge Pardee dissented.

SCIENCE PREVENTS BALDNESS.

The Fatal Germ and Its Remedy Now Facts of Science.

It is the rarest thing in the world for a man to be necessarily bald. No man whose hair is not dead at the roots, need be bald if he will use Newbro's Herpicide, the new scalp antiseptic. Herpicide destroys the germ that cuts the hair off at the root; and cleans the scalp of dandruff and leaves it in a perfectly healthy condition. Mr. Mannett, in the Maryland Block, Butte, Mont., was entirely bald. In less than a month Herpicide had removed the enemies of hair growth, and nature did its work by covering his head with thick hair an inch long, and in six weeks he had a normal suit of hair. ARE YOU CLEANING UP?

The following from The Arcadia News of a recent date is applicable to Gainesville, as it is to other towns of the State:

"The DeSoto County News in a former issue asked this pertinent question, which is applicable to the season, and which we dedicate to the people of Brevard county.

"Are you cleaning up your premises and trying to keep clean as the hot weather comes? Now, that it has been proven beyond a shadow of a doubt that flies from the stable or closets often bring typhoid germs to food, why not try to shut them out? Screens on the doors and windows and lime outside and a general clean-up are all cheaper than sickness.

"Then are you sure your drinking water is just the thing? So much sickness has been treated to the water. If from shallow wells why not boil it and keep it on ice? Then even deep water sometimes has too much lime for many weak systems. A stone filter will take much of the lime out. Keep the sewer pipes of the human system open for refuse matter.

"Cost trouble and money, you say. Yes, but cheaper than sickness. Prevention is better and cheaper than cure.'"

Members of the county school board and county commissioners now receive four dollars per day for their services, the law in this respect having been amended at the last session of the Legislature.

Referring to the gubernatorial timber, what's the matter with Joe Humphries of Manatee county? He is possessed of the ability and sagacity that the chief executive should possess, and would make Florida a model Governor.

It is said that as a result of his controversy with Dr. Long, Mr. Roosevelt is about to found a new Ananias Club, outside of politics. The reverend Doctor also seems disposed to start a club of that sort in the White House. He doesn't apply the term "liar" to Mr. Roosevelt, but he uses others "equally as good." He is certainly not involved in any "conspiracy of silence."

"Pot metal" will be a prominent feature of the next gubernatorial campaign. Guy Metcalf, who managed this department of Mr. Burr's business four years ago, when he first ran for railroad commissioner, will no doubt look after his interests in this respect in his race for Governor next year. The Florida newspapers are largely indebted to Mr. Metcalf for their new class of advertising.

The passage of the apportionment bill introduced in the last session of the Legislature giving each county a Senator, and providing that no county should have more than three Representatives, no matter what population the county has, would have been nothing more nor less than an outrage upon the larger counties of the State. It required constant watchfulness on the part of the Senators from the larger counties to prevent the passage of this bill through the Senate after it had been passed by the House.

LIGHT ON THE "DARK HORSE."

The Watterson "dark horse" will have no chance for the Democratic nomination if his good points are not exhibited. It has always been the rule in the Democratic party that all who are candidates, or who their friends desire to be nominated, shall have a fair field and no favors asked or expected. That this good old Democratic plan may not be rescinded, Mr. Watterson should name his "dark horse" and give his pedigree and past performances. But as he does not seem willing to do this we may be permitted to guess that Judge Harmon of Ohio is the man that Marse Henry has in mind, and for the life of us we cannot think why there should be any mystery in proposing him as one who is worthy of consideration. He certainly measures up to the Democratic requirement of ability and honesty, and supported Mr. Bryan in 1896 and 1900, and has never had entangling alliances with the trusts or the money power. Whether he can defeat Mr. Bryan for the nomination is another question; or whether he would unite the factions in the party better than Mr. Bryan can is the question that must be considered and decided before he or anyone else will be nominated.

AVAILABLE CANDIDATES.

A canvass of the newspapers, both Democratic and Republican, during the past month, gives evidence of a very singular and sudden alteration in sentiment concerning Democratic prospects in 1908. The apathy that always accompanies an inevitable candidacy seemed, up to two months ago, to have settled on the party; but now, since the appearance of ten available candidates, the whole complexion of the situation is changed, and nowhere is this more evident than in the editorial pages of the newspapers referred to.

Among the names suggested as candidates are Overman, White, Johnson, Daniel, Swanson, Rayner, Culberson, Carmack, Beckham, Smith and Francis. It is a singular fact that in all this long list, there is not, except Johnson, the name of a single Northern man. It seems to be generally conceded that the South is to name the next candidate of the party, and it is probably the most significant sign of the times that this inevitable event has excited no adverse criticism, either in the North or West.

The unanimity with which the bill appropriating money for the proper equipment and maintenance of the Florida University, State Woman's College, and Deaf, Dumb and Blind Institute, passed the recent Legislature, shows that the people of Florida are alive to the importance of the higher education of the youth of the State. Senator Buckman of Duval county is the author of the present higher education law, which was enacted in 1905, and the ability with which he opposed every attempt to cripple the State schools during the recent session of the Legislature shows that his constituents made no mistake in promoting him from the House to the Senate. Harry Buckman is today one of the ablest men in the State of Florida.

The anti-tip bill which passed the House during the late session of the Legislature would have found many friends in the Senate had it been reached on the calendar.

PAY UP AND LOOK PLEASANT.

The New York papers have been discussing the disagreement between State Chairman Conners and Mr. William R. Hearst. The suggestions as to the cause of the falling out vary, from a positive statement that Conners in order to secure the election of Mr. Hearst as Governor spent $68,000 over and above the large amount Hearst contributed and cannot now collect from the candidate who authorized the outlay, to the innuendo that, being no longer in fear of Hearst starting a newspaper in Buffalo and interfering with his field, Conners has thought best to make a declaration of independence and be free to meet the new and rapidly-developing conditions politically ahead of him.

Cleaning a Sickroom.

Most of us know how untidy a sickroom becomes and how annoying the dust of the sweeping is to the patient. "To remedy this," said a trained and capable nurse, "I put a little ammonia in a pail of warm water and with my mop wrung as dry as possible go all over the carpet first. This takes up all the dust and much of the loose dirt. A broom will take what is too large to adhere to the mop and raise no dust. With my dust cloth well sprinkled I go over the furniture, and the room is fairly clean."

Reason For Heavy Wheels.

Everywhere in the old world the wheels of wagons and carriages are two or three times as heavy as those on corresponding vehicles in America and so appear clumsy and cumbersome to us. The explanation of the difference is that our wheels are made of hickory, a wood unknown abroad, which supplies the requisite strength in smaller mass.—Travel Magazine.

A Matter of Economy.

"You're not so strict with that youngster of yours as you used to be," said Popley's friend.

"No; for economy's sake I'm not," replied Popley. "Every month I used to have to buy myself a new pair of slippers and him a new pair of pants."—Exchange.

Suited Him.

Her Suitor—I wish to marry your daughter, sir. Her Father (sternly)—My daughter, sir, will continue under the parental roof. Her Suitor—Well, sir, the parental roof looks good to me.—San Francisco Chronicle.

You may succeed when others do not believe in you, but never when you do not believe in yourself.

ANCESTRAL APPETITES.

Table Feats of Some Famous Feeders of Bygone Days.

A generation holding critical views on a man's intelligent, or unwise, choice of parents is not likely to indulge in ancestor worship. But there are at least one or two things in which our ancestors were truly greater than we of the present day can ever aspire to be. Take them, for instance, at table. If ancient books on table etiquette are to be taken seriously, and there is no reason why they should not be, the ancestor was in the habit of gnawing bones a la chien and of disposing of them by the simple means of throwing them under the table or over his shoulder. He worked hard with his hands in the dishes, when a succulent but slippery morsel refused to come to him by means of knife and fork. He used his table napkin for unspeakable purposes and his fork in utter forgetfulness as comb or toothbrush. In one sense, therefore, he did not know how to eat. Meanwhile, in another, he was truly great for the quantities of food which he caused to disappear at a single meal were nothing short of marvelous.

The records preserved of the ancestor's feats of the fork (and the finger) are woefully thin, but now and again one of these very human documents in the form of a menu is unearthed and tells its own story. Such is the following list of dishes served in 1334 to a worthy citizen of Valencia on the occasion of his taking unto himself a wife. Across the space of close upon the six centuries the cranes and lampreys, the peacocks and boar's head of the feast made fine display. This is the order in which the fourteenth century wedding breakfast was served:

MENU.

Roast crane, venison, lamprey.
Peacock, pheasant, guinea fowl, osprey, snipe, pike,
Baked pomegranates, burnt almonds, vegetables, fish.
Eel pie and toast.
Galantine of sprats and cheese cakes.
Peacock, crane, pheasant.
Crayfish, boar's head and savouries.
Figs, medlars and wafers.
Wines.
Saint Jangon, Branne, Burgundy and Hock.

The Italians also were famous feeders and seem to have distinguished themselves in particular during the early days of the renaissance. The Bourbons valiantly followed suit, one of the most distinguished successes being scored by Louis XIV., of whom an eyewitness wrote: "I often saw him eat four plates of soup, a whole pheasant, a guinea fowl, a large dish of salad, several slices of mutton with garlic sauce, two large slices of ham, a dish of cake and dessert." The threats of his physicians finally reduced his majesty to such meager fare as two plates of pigeon broth and three roast fowls. According to Arenberg, the great king was later in life subject to attacks of indigestion.

The little suppers in the reign of the next Louis, though on a slightly less gigantic scale, are still sufficiently impressive. The Marquise d'Artenay, for instance, put before her guests after they came from the theater and before they went on to a dance this collation:

Pigeon soup, with lentils and carrots.
Chicken broth.
Patties of fowl, veal, capon, pheasants, guinea fowl.
Sweetbread and roast poulets.
Baked starlings, wood pigeons, wild duck and snipe.
Cakes. Sweets. Fruit.

It seems a pity no record is preserved of what happened at the dance following this supper party.

A Big Fan.

A good deal of royal significance has been given to fans. They were symbols of authority in Mexico before the conquest. Queen Mary of England received on New Year's day in 1556 "7 fannes to keep the hete of the fyre." Queen Elizabeth favored the custom that a fan was the only present a sovereign could receive from a subject. Fans have not always been dainty trifles. Jean de Balzac, a French writer of the seventeenth century, wrote from Italy during the reign of Louis XIV. of the enormous fans in use there suspended from the ceiling and worked by four servants. He says, "I have a fan that makes wind enough in my chamber to wreck a ship."

The Stone Was Not Thrown.

Genevieve's father occupied the pulpit. "Let him who is without sin among you be first to cast a stone," he chose for a text. Genevieve listened earnestly to the ensuing discourse. At the close of the service her mother tried in vain to dislodge her from the ministerial pew. Genevieve stood her ground till the rest of the congregation had passed out, then she looked up with a sigh of relief. "Well," she said, "I guess they've all sinned. Anyhow, nobody threw it."—New York Globe.

HONOR DAVIS' MEMORY.

Many Southern Cities Take Marked Notice of Memorial Unveiling.

Montgomery, Ala., June 4.—Jefferson Davis came to Montgomery first to be inaugurated president of the Confederacy in 1861, next to dedicate the magnificent monument to the dead of the south in 1887, and lastly a corpse to law in state enroute to his burying place in Richmond. Consequently the city took maked notice of the unveiling of his monument at Richmond, Monday, all business being suspended and the stores closed for five minutes.

The people of the city in large measure gathered about the star on the capitol steps which marks the place where he stood to take the oath of president, and stood with bowed heads at the time of the unveiling. A floral offering was sent by the state, it being a huge cradle. It represented the cradle of the Confederacy, as Montgomery is known.

Davis' Birthday Legal Holiday.

Dallas, Tex., June 4.—A new state law, which makes the Jefferson Davis birthday a legal holiday, was observed Monday by the United States government through its local officials. The postoffice and other federal offices were closed.

Davis Exercises in Texas.

Waco, Tex., June 4.—Exercises were held in many towns in Texas Monday in honor of the birthday of Jefferson Davis. Prominent speakers participated in these exercises.

FAMOUS "COTTON LEAK" CASE.

Edwin Holmes Jointly Indicted With Peckham and Haas.

Washington, June 4.—Ed Holmes, Jr., of Washington, for many years assistant statistician of the department of agriculture, on Monday was placed on trial before Justice Stafford in the criminal court No. 1, in the famous "cotton leak" case.

Holmes is jointly indicted with Frederick A. Peckham and Moses Haas, of New York, for conspiracy. The indictments against the three men which were returned Aug. 25, 1906, charge that Holmes gave out advance information relative to the amount of production, etc., to President Peckham and Haas, that they furnished information to Lewis C. Van Riper, of New York, and that the latter speculated and divided the profits with Holmes, Peckham and Haas. The indictment charges that they divided approximately $20,000 as the result of their operations, and that the government will attempt to prove that they realized even a larger sum.

Every Man His Own Doctor.

The average man cannot afford to employ a physician for every slight ailment or injury that may occur in his family, nor can he afford to neglect them, as so slight an injury as the scratch of a pin has been known to cause the loss of a limb. Hence every man must, from necessity, be his own doctor for this class of ailments. Success often depends upon prompt treatment, which can only be had when suitable medicines are kept at hand. Chamberlain's remedies have been in the market for many years and enjoy a good reputation.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm (an antiseptic liniment) for cuts, bruises, burns, sprains, swellings, lame back and rheumatic pains.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for constipation, biliousness and stomach troubles.

Chamberlain's Salve for diseases of the skin.

One bottle of each of these five preparations costs but $1.25. For sale by all druggists.

Instructed Not To Take Orders.

Spencer, Mass., June 4.—A copy of what appeared to be a general order sent out from headquarters of the United Shoe Making Machinery company, in Boston, has been received by the company's agent in Spencer, instructing him not to take orders for any more machinery until further orders have been received from the company. The signing of the anti-shoe-making bill, by Governor Guild on Saturday, making the measure a law, is supposed to be the reason for the order.

Colic and Diarrhoea.

Pains in the stomach, colic and diarrhoea are quickly relieved by the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by all druggists.

FARMER KILLS TWO NEGROES.

They Aroused Him for the Purpose of Killing Him, It Is Thought.

Augusta, Ga., June 4.—Early Sunday morning Joe and Tellman Barnes, negroes, aroused J. B. Morgan, a white farmer, by knocking on his front door. Morgan's suspicions were aroused and he went through the rear of and around the house, finding one negro standing on the steps with a drawn revolver and the other crouched by the door with a knife.

The negro was ordered by Morgan to drop his pistol, but attempted to fire. He was shot dead by Morgan. Joe Barnes rushed upon Morgan with a knife and was fatally wounded by a second shot from the farmer.

Judge Eve was notified that threats were being made by negroes of the locality against Morgan, and he ordered the county police force and a detachment of guards from the stockade to proceed to the vicinity and preserve order.

A Happy Mother

Will see that her baby is properly cared for—to do this a good purgative is necessary. Many babies suffer from worms and their mothers don't know it—if your baby is feverish and doesn't sleep at night, it is troubled with worms. White's Cream Vermifuge will clean out these worms in a mild, pleasant way. Once tried always used. Give it a trial. Price 25 cents. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

He Met Death Armed to the Teeth.

Clinton, S. C., June 4.—John McMorris, a negro, was shot and killed in the house of Rhett Crawford Sunday morning. The negro entered the place with a key, probably having seen Crawford's family start out for church. Two men on watch confronted him and he opened fire, but was killed by John Boyd. McMorris had three pistols and a bunch of fourteen keys on his person. Boyd is held by the coroner of Laurens county for investigation.

There Are Few

People who know how to take care of themselves—the majority do not. The liver is a most important organ in the body. V. C. Simpkins, Alba, Texas, writes: "I have used Herbine for Chills and Fever and find it the best medicine I ever used. I would not be without it. It is as good for children as it is for grown-up people, and I recommend it. It is fine for La Grippe." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Found Dying In Vacant Lot.

Birmingham, Ala., June 4.—J. M. Mosely, an employee at the Alabama Great Southern railroad shops, was found in a dying condition in a vacant lot on Morris avenue with his pockets rifled. There were great holes in the front and back of his head as though the skull had been crushed in by some heavy weapon. He cannot possibly recover. His son, S. J. M. Mosely, was killed by highwaymen in Birmingham a short time ago.

Tetter Cured.

A lady customer of ours had suffered with tetter for two or three years. It got so bad on her hands that she could not attend to her household duties. One box of Chamberlain's Salve cured her. Chamberlain's medicines give splendid satisfaction in this community.—M. H. Rodney & Co., Almond, Ala. Chamberlain's medicines are for sale by all druggists.

Freight Train Derailed.

Selma, Ala., une 4.—Northbound freight No. 76, on the Southern railway, was derailed Saturday morning near Jenifer, engine and nine freight cars turning over. Engineer McMillan, in jumping, was very painfully injured. Brakeman Emmett Young, white, was found dead under the engine. Trains were detoured around the wreck over the Louisville and Nashville, road from Anniston to Jenifer.

Full Quota of Men at Work.

Montgomery, Ala., June 3.—The strike of the machinists of the Louisville and Nashville railroad here was of small consequence. A full quota of men is now at work, and the old men who went out have been notified that there is no place for them in the shops.

Ancient Rome

Is now merely a memory of the past. Ballard's Snow Liniment is the family liniment of the twentieth century. A positive cure for Rheumatism, Burns, Cuts, Sprains, Neuralgia, etc. Mr. C. H. Runyon, Stanberry, Mo., writes: "I have used Snow Liniment for Rheumatism and all pain. I can't say enough in its praise." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

THE POCKET SAVINGS BANK EPIDEMIC RAGES FIERCELY ....IN GAINESVILLE....

Beneficent epidemics are scarce, but such a one has struck Gainesville, and people of every station and occupation have the fever.

It is most interesting and instructive to study the constantly changing line of applicants for Pocket Banks as it files through The Sun's business office There is the mother, bringing her daughter with her and securing a bank for the girl, another for herself, and inquiring anxiously whether she may have another for the boy who is at work. She receives it promptly.

Boys come—some are steady, serious-faced chaps who have begun to think on their own account, and who ask questions about the operation of the scheme which show the results of rubbing up against the world.

Then the High School girls and boys, gay and active, while the workman and business man "slip in" during the noon hour to get a bank for the boy or girl at home, after asking one or two leading questions to make sure there is no joke about the 25 cents.

.....THE PLAN IN OUTLINE.....

For several years the Magnolia Hotel, of which Mrs. J. S. Goode is proprietress, has enjoyed an enviable reputation among the traveling public, but the Magnolia now is destined to become even more popular, since that hostelry has been thoroughly renovated and to a large extent refurnished.

Mrs. Goode has made herself very popular as a landlady, because of the fact that she has exerted every effort not only to satisfy her patrons, but to give them a first-class service, as regards both cuisine and apartments. Her table is supplied at all times with the best in the market, the food is properly prepared and is abundant, and her service in the dining-room is all that could be desired. Her beds are the best that can be secured, the rooms are always clean and inviting, and altogether there is no wonder why the Magnolia is enjoying the reputation everywhere of being one of the best medium-priced hostelries in the State.
